AN EXHIBITION BY

LIZ HARVEY
MAZ JACKSON

This Exhibition is a celebration of our creativity and friendship and the different paths we have taken; known for our work in egg tempera and watercolour, we continue to explore imagery and media, inspired by, and delighting in life and the spaces in between.

FREE EXHIBITION

STUART SHEARER

Ambulatory Drawing Stuart will be exhibiting a selection of recent drawings made whilst walking through the Norfolk landscape. He explains that this method makes it possible to record the visual and physical experience of moving through the landscape. During this activity, the ambulatory artist becomes part of the environment alongside the other flora and fauna living there, and the drawings become visually dynamic records of this immersive experience.

FREE EXHIBITION

† hesperos

The London based Hesperos Choir, founded in 2018, made up of university friends, consists now of singers from different backgrounds. Hesperos, the evening star of Greek mythology, alludes to a shared love of choral evensong, which they sing in cathedrals, churches etc around the country. Their repertoire varies from early polyphony to neglected 20th century works. The concert will include

PARRY'S - "SONGS OF FAREWELL"

COMMON LAND: BELONGING

...may they one day come home
to whatever their green place is....

(from "Planting a Stone")

by Jonathan Ward

FREE EXHIBITION

Common Land is a group of three visual artists and a poet who are influenced by the natural world. They have shared interest in the details of our human connection to place, the ever changing landscape and its wildlife. In this Exhibition they consider aspects of "Belonging" in relation to the landscape and we (and others) inhabit the world we live in and our association and affinity to it. The Group is joined by David, a sound artist called "Sonic Moth".

"ASK THE ANGELS"

AN EXHIBITION BY
BRETT LIGHTWAIT

Brett Lightwait is a local artist whose intricate and colourful paintings are quite unique in style and vision. Brett has worked in many mediums from stained glass, film to photography, often within the context of community arts. His latest work has been described variously as "mystical" and "transformative."
